UM ART STUDENT WINS HOOK SCHOLARSHIP

MISSOULA--

Timon Meyer, a University of Montana senior in art, has received the $1,000 Walter Hook Memorial Scholarship for 2001-2002.

The scholarship is named for the late Walter Hook, a well-known Montana painter and onetime member of UM's art faculty. Born in Milltown in 1919, Hook taught for 22 years at UM, retiring in 1977. He died in 1989 following open-heart surgery.

Meyer, a native of Germany, holds a 3.92 grade-point average and has previously received two scholarships and made the Dean's list. He coordinates the University Center Gallery exhibits while attending UM full time. He also tutors American students in German and participates actively in UM's International Student Association and the International Student Peer Assistant Program.
